Sunday's Report

Little Miami High School will be closed Wednesday so that everyone who wants to attend the funeral can do so. The rest of the district buildings will operate on their normal schedules Wednesday.

Brayden was taken off life support Saturday. He had been critically injured a week earlier in a car accident.

Friday's report:

We are deeply saddened to report that Little Miami High School student Brayden Thornbury was pronounced brain-dead Friday, Sept. 12.

Brayden, a senior, had been critically injured last Saturday night in a car accident. He remained unresponsive at Miami Valley Hospital in Dayton until it was determined Friday that he had no brain function.

The high school's crisis team was on hand to support students who are struggling with this news. The school's multipurpose room was opened for students to seek support.

The Thornbury family has asked for prayers and support, and also asked that students and media not come to the hospital.

The football game Friday night and all weekend extracurricular events A determination will be made at a later date as to whether those events will be rescheduled. All weekend extracurricular activities for the Junior High have also been cancelled.

Brayden is known for being a wonderful all-around person, a well-liked and positive leader among his peers and in our community. He is the role model that exemplifies the youth of the Little Miami Community. Not only is Brayden known as this kind of person, he is known for his accomplishments in his community with his church.

He is also a talented and notable athlete. He played football in Little Miami for 12 years, and as recently as last Friday night, he rushed for 146 yards and a touchdown in the varsity's game against Western Brown. Brayden also played basketball and lacrosse for the Panthers.

The Thornburys are people we are proud to call a part of the Little Miami family. Brayden's mother, Jeanne, is a district employee and his father, Ron, has been a stalwart supporter of our school district for many years. Brayden's brother, Daniel, is a freshman member of the football team.

Fellowship Baptist Church is collecting donations for the Thornbury family. Checks can be made out either to the church or to the family and mailed to Fellowship Baptist Church, P.O. Box 219, Maineville, OH 45039. Checks should say "Thornbury family" in the memo line.

Brayden Thornbury: Remembering One of Our Own

So often, I get to brag about our players, teams, coaches and umpires and indeed this note won't be any different, but clearly this bridges far more serious news and that is that we have lost a well loved and respected member of the Little Miami Youth Baseball family. Brayden Thornbury was a terrific player and a well-respected umpire for our organization. To say that he will be missed is so greatly understated that it seems trivial to mention it, but it is so truthful that it simply must be said.

Of all the players/umpires Brayden was one that clearly stood out. I first started to get to know Brayden (along with his parents) the first year that I took over as President for LMYB. It was our "post-season" and he was playing for our LM Bombers. My family and I went every evening, it seemed, to watch these 12/13 year olds playing ball. Brayden, along with several others, were standouts on this team of stars, but then again, that's how Brayden did things, he always gave the extra effort, and he always went over and above what was expected ... I think that we've all learned that by now. Over time, Brayden started spending more time umpiring for us, than playing for us, but that came with so many benefits. I believe that almost all of our coaches came to know Brayden and I would always hear about how encouraging he was to the young players and what a good job he would do. I know from experience that it was a great relief to see that Brayden was umpiring one of my team's games; it meant we'd all have fun and we'd get a well called game.

Baseball is how I came to know Brayden, but I also know that there was so much more to Brayden than just that aspect. Brayden was a fine young man and a shining example of what I'd like all of our players to grow into. Brayden was fun loving, caring, full of energy and carried himself with a great amount of integrity and was highly respected. Brayden was a warrior for God, having recently completed a mission trip to Africa. Brayden was an outstanding student leader, teammate, friend, brother and son ... I guess what I'm saying is that Brayden serves as one of the best role models that I've ever come to know.

I could go on and on about Brayden and if you didn't know him, feel free to ask ... It would be an honor to tell you more. With that said my thoughts, prayers and concern falls to Brayden's family. Little Miami Youth Baseball is all about family and I can't go a day without thinking about Brayden's brother Daniel, his mom Jeannie and his dad Ron. Simply put, I cannot allow myself to imagine what they are going through. Please know that LMYB is committed to doing what we can to support this family and, when an appropriate time comes, we will work with them to find an appropriate way for us to keep Brayden's memory alive for many years.

I'm so proud of this community and the response that has been an utter outpouring of love and support. I believe it's exactly how Brayden would want us to be ... there for each other and caring about those who need it the most.

My hope moving forward is that we all remember Brayden for what he did. All other thoughts are unproductive. Over the last week, I've come to know more about Brayden's many accomplishments, it's a testament of a life well lived. That's how I will remember Brayden, he lived life to its fullest, and he performed on and off the field to a level that is to be commended. He was and will remain a role model for us all. He will be sorely missed, but he goes having touched so many of us so deeply that he can't possibly ever be forgotten. May you rest in peace Brayden Thornbury. May we be blessed with many more like you.

Sincerely,

Ken Floss, President
Little Miami Youth Baseball

Meet Local Author Victor Nelson – Author of *Molly's Secret Garden

I grew up in the Little Miami area all my life. I graduated from Little Miami in 1985 and have lived in Maineville for the past 22 years. My wife, Kimberly and I are celebrating our 23rd wedding anniversary this month. She is also a lifetime Little Miami resident.

Folks ask me how I came up with the idea of writing and getting a book published about a young girl who travels through stories of the Bible with Jesus. I tell them, I believe, at least in my life that everything happens for a reason. I could talk for hours about what seemed like a tragic event at the time, ended up being to my benefit. I've been a Scout leader for over 15 years and making up and telling stories is nothing new.

One day last summer, I went to my wife, Kimberly and said, "I've got an idea for a story. It's about a little girl who has a secret garden on the top of her apartment building." She shrugged her shoulders and said, "Okay." Like I said, me coming up with stories was nothing to her.

I kept concentrating on the idea, and after a few days of thinking about it, things became clearer. So I went to my wife again and asked her, "What if while this little girl was tending to her flower garden, Jesus comes to her and takes her through stories of the Bible?" Again, she shrugged her shoulders and said, "Yea, that sounds good."

Over the next several weeks, I began writing and telling the story of this young girl named Molly working hard to create a beautiful flower garden on the roof of her apartment building.

After reading and re-reading my story, I now needed an illustrator and a publisher. I wanted to utilize as many local resources as much as I could. When I attended Little Miami High School many years ago, I was a student in the art department. I knew many of my fellow art students were talented enough to be an illustrator of a book. So that's where the first place I went to find one.

I talked to one of the assistant principals of Little Miami and told him who I was, about my project and what I needed. I ask him to pass my information to the art instructors to see if they could recommend any of their students to be my illustrator.

After about a week, a young lady called me one evening asking about the project. She said her name was Raechel Lombardo and she was a junior at Little Miami. I told Raechel I would e-mail the story to her and to let me know what she thought. She called me a few days later and said she loved it and would like to meet. We met for the first time a few days later to review some of her sketches and ideas. After my wife and I saw the talent this young lady possessed, we knew I had found the perfect illustrator for the job.

Now that I found an illustrator, all I needed was a publisher. After several attempts, my success of finding a publisher was looking very slim. If you're not a president or a famous actor/actress no one wants to talk to you. But as I said earlier, I believe that everything happens for a reason.

If you can remember, there were a lot of bad storms in the spring of 2013. By mid-summer, my neighborhood was being bombarded by roofing company's trying to sell my insurance company a new roof for my house.

I kept telling them, "No, my roof is fine" and sent them away. But one day, I truly believe that God stepped in and intervened.

I live next door to my in-laws and one day a man from a roofing company stopped in to talk to them about replacing their roof. It was the same scenario as the numerous roofing companies before him, but this time something was different.

My in-laws agreed to let them and the insurance company replace the roof of their house, but another blessing came out of the whole situation. After having numerous conversations with the owner of the company, my in-laws found out he was getting a book published.

He and I had a conversation about also replacing my roof and the publishing company he was going through. After he gave me the publisher's name I researched them and sent in my story for review.

Within about two weeks, I received a publishing contract offer for my story and a new roof from my insurance company. There is truth to the old saying, "The Lord works in mysterious ways."

I have written five more stories of Molly and Jesus' adventures together. All of them include current events and today's problems in the world. The problems include homelessness, trying to help fellow students in school, a sick family member and of course the birth of Jesus.

The next book to be released will be Molly's Golden Voyage. It will include Molly dealing with drugs and violence in her community. She wants to make a change in her neighborhood, but thinks just because she's a young girl; there isn't anything she is able to do about it. Jesus introduces her to Noah and shows her why God changed the world with a great flood.

Just a little insight for the Little Miami residents, currently I have three more books in the works. They include the miracles of Jesus, Molly dealing with peer pressure and the crucifixion of Jesus.

I have heard many people are purchasing copies of Molly's Secret Garden for their children and grandchildren. I've also heard stories of Sunday school teachers purchasing copies for their students and reading to them each week during class.

Molly's Secret Garden is available through Barnes & Noble and Amazon.com. I try to keep a few copies on hand and if you do not have one of these accounts, you can call me at 513.899.4853 and I will personally make a home delivery.

Quaker Heritage Center News

Guest Speaker at the Quaker Heritage Center – “Friends Abroad: Wilmington Quakers in World War I”
Houses demolished. Farms destroyed. Families torn apart. It was these horrible conditions facing civilians that prompted almost 500 young American Quakers to volunteer as relief workers in Europe during World War I. Under the auspices of the Red Cross, these Quakers – alongside hundreds of other volunteers from multiple denominations – were trained in healthcare, agriculture, construction, and nutrition. 100 young Quaker men were specifically organized and trained by the American Friends Service Committee (AFSC), a Quaker organization modeled after a similar British Quaker organization.

On Tuesday, September 30, 2014, Dr. D. Neil Snarr, Professor Emeritus of Wilmington College, will present a lecture on the young men from Clinton County who participated in this relief work. Some volunteered with AFSC, others directly with the Red Cross, but they all returned home deeply touched by what they witnessed in war-torn Europe. “Friends Abroad: Wilmington Quakers in World War I” will be held in the T. Canby Jones Meetinghouse of the Quaker Heritage Center in the Boyd Cultural Arts Center on the campus of Wilmington College at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, September 30.

The exhibit will be on display at the Quaker Heritage Center of Wilmington College through December 12, 2014. The Center is open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., and the last Saturday of each month, 12 noon to 5 p.m. Other special programming is planned for November and December.

Contact Ruth M. Brindle, Curator, or visit www.wilmington.edu/qhc for more information on the exhibit and a full calendar of events.

The Quaker Heritage Center Presents “All Is Calm: The Christmas Truce of 1914” – November 11, 13 & 15
The events that have eventually brought about the Christmas Eve truce of 1914 create one of those stories that almost defy believability. While Pope Benedict XV had suggested a temporary hiatus of the war for the celebration of Christmas, the warring countries refused any official cease-fire. But on Christmas Eve, many German and British troops sang Christmas carols to each other across the lines, and on Christmas Day, soldiers from each side emerged from the trenches to exchange presents of cigarettes and plum puddings, sing carols and songs, and play soccer. That the truce did indeed happen, and that we can experience that story by way of the recollections and words of those who were there, make for an incredibly compelling story of the better parts of human nature winning out in an unbelievably horrible situation.

“The young men who found themselves in the trenches that Christmas were experiencing a type of warfare that was incomprehensible to all of them,” Cantabile Director Steven Haines said. “That so many of them dealt with the horrors through the written word is equally astonishing. Yet, write they did; leaving us with words that are full of pathos, humor, confession, and revelation. Collectively they left us with a ‘script’ that no single author could have written, let alone imagined.” That “script” takes the form of “All Is Calm,” a choral performance by the Cantabile Men’s Ensemble, which will be presented at the Quaker Heritage Center on November 11, 13, and 15, 2014, at 7:30 pm.

The performance offers the words left behind combined with music to tell this story without interference from an author's intrusion. The poetry, letters, journal entries and random musings tell a profound and moving story without the need for any further embellishment. Inhumanity gave way to sense and civility for short time during the early months of one of the most horrific events in world history. "As a director of theatre and music," Haines noted, "I constantly work discover and tell stories and move us and change us. In this case, the effect is even more compelling because we are using only the words and the songs of those who actually lived it."

The program is being offered in conjunction with "The Pity of War: Words and Images of World War I," a student-produced exhibit on display at the Quaker Heritage Center of Wilmington College through December 12, 2014. The Center is open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., and the last Saturday of each month, 12 noon to 5 p.m.

Contact Ruth M. Brindle, Curator, or visit www.wilmington.edu/qhc for more information on the exhibit and a full calendar of events.

New Exhibit to Open at the Quaker Heritage Center – Now through December 12

100 years ago, one of the Earth's most deadly conflicts began: World War I. By the end of "The War to End All Wars," over 37 million people were dead, wounded, or listed missing. "It's a story that we tend to forget," said Ruth Brindle, Curator of the Quaker Heritage Center. "World War I is often overshadowed by World War II, particularly here in the United States, where the war's impact wasn't felt as acutely as it was in Europe. That's why we felt this exhibit - The Pity of War: Words and Images of World War I - is necessary."

The exhibit will be on display through December 12, 2014, and opens with a brief overview of the chronology of the war itself, then delves into the stories of those who lived through those events as soldiers, civilians, and Conscientious Objectors. "Using the words of these individuals, and highlighting those stories with images from the period, really brings the experience home on a personal level," Brindle noted. Of particular interest to the mission of the Quaker Heritage Center is the inclusion of stories of individual Quakers who registered as Conscientious Objectors or volunteered for relief work in war-torn Europe. That particular interest is why Stephen Angell, Geraldine Leatherock Professor of Quaker Studies at Earlham School of Religion, will be the guest lecturer at the exhibit opening. His talk, "A. Neave Brayshaw and the Re-Invigoration of the Quaker Peace Testimony During World War I," will explore the way the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) responded to the War.

The exhibit will be on display at the Quaker Heritage Center of Wilmington College from July 28 through December 12, 2014. The Center is open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., and the last Saturday of each month, 12 noon to 5 p.m. Other special programming is planned for September and November.

Contact Ruth M. Brindle, Curator, or visit www.wilmington.edu/qhc for more information on the exhibit and a full calendar of events.

Shelton's Produce and Glory Farms at Deerfield Farmers Market & Lebanon Farm Market

The markets end in October, but we will still be there for you. The best way to receive your produce, baked goods, jams, syrup, eggs, etc. during Fall, Winter, and early Spring is to order ahead! www.wildhollyfarm.com is the website to check in and order on, or email me directly gloryent@tds.net or call or text 937.725.8773. Several of us will be at the Lebanon Farm Market site in the Lebanon City parking lot, corner of Main St and Sycamore St, every Thursday from 3 till at least 5 all fall and winter, and when the regular market comes back in May, we will still be in full swing. Also, I will be at the Deerfield site, 4188 Irwin Simpson Rd, Mason, every Saturday from 10 am till 11 am to deliver herdshares and CSA's, and orders. You can order available produce, baked goods, jams, syrups, etc. to pick up at that time. www.wildhollyfarm.com will be keeping you updated as to produce available, as well as a list of regularly available items, baked goods, jams, etc. I can also add you to the Glory Farms email notifications, if you email me your address at gloryent@tds.net. CSA's are available in 10 and 20 week programs, and can be received every week or every other week. The Shelton's are full service farmers, providing produce, eggs, and pork, beef, chickens, turkeys, herd shares, as well as baked goods, maple syrups, jams, and more. We actually are farmers, and everything we sell, we produce! Feel free to call ahead and reserve your produce, freezer meats, baked goods, and jams. You can also pick up your needs at the farm, 6759 Osceola Road, Morrow, Ohio 45152.

My sons' families, Wild Holly Farm (Teddy & Kathy), Shelton Produce (Warren & Karen), Rustic Crafts (Marc & Cherie), Shelton Farms (Si & Casie), and Timber Valley (Seth and Megan) are also affiliated with Glory Farms, so full service can be expected. For your convenience for fall and winter orders, here is a quick list. Jams are $5, with a refund of 50c when you return jars. We can "jam" to your order, but typically we have on hand blackberry, appleberry, orange marmalade, strawberry, jalapeno, strawberry peach, strawberry blueberry, strawberry pineapple, pineapple, also low sugar varieties (not sugar free, just approximately half the sugar): orange marmalade, strawberry, strawberry blueberry. Also, maple syrup and hickory syrup, as well as marmalades and apple butter, and pumpkin apple butter. Yeast breads are $5 for large loaves. Onion Dill, Oatmeal Cranberry, Oatmeal Blueberry, Oatmeal Raisin, Light Wheat, Cinnamon. Plain White Bread is $4 for a large loaf. All except the Onion Dill are made with honey instead of sugar, and my own milk and butter. Banana and pumpkin breads $5. The Gift of Thistle shortbreads are $7, and we have been pleased with the response to the pecan shortbreads, so will do some more experimenting: coconut and also cinnamon are thoughts. Small cobblers (apple or peach) and chocolate cakes are $5. Cookies are $5 dozen, $9 two dozen, $12 three dozen and can be mixed varieties. We will also bake and jam to your order! Holidays and Special Events orders welcome. Gingerbread is $4, iced $5. Also, Kathy's organic soaps, body butters, hand sanitizers, etc. are great gift ideas, as well as for your own personal needs. Cherie has started a line of very attractive purses. Rain, sleet, snow, (and hopefully sun!!), we will see you all winter! Also, we can prepare Gift Baskets, and also can mail them for you. Please contact me for details, and we will customize your basket according to your desires. This is a new area for us, and we are having fun with it.

Viox Excavating 6-Month Reminder

It's time to divert your septic system. Doing this twice a year helps your septic or mound system lasts a lifetime. For more insights, see our free report Prevent Septic System Nightmares! 6 Things You Need To Know .

Diverting Your Septic System Instructions

1. You'll need a "key" to do this. One was provided as a part of the septic system installation and may be stored inside one of the risers on your tank. If your key has been misplaced, a replacement can be purchased from your local hardware store.
2. Take the lid off the white PVC pipe that sticks up out of the ground. You will see a 1 and 2 at the 11:00 and 1:00 positions. (If they are obscured by mud, pour water in to rinse them.)
3. Use the key to turn the valve to the other number. It may be quite difficult to turn but will not break.
4. Return the lid and forget about it until you receive your next reminder in 6 months.

Additional Reminders

Six months from now, and every 6 months thereafter, you'll receive an email reminding you to divert your system. If you move or want to stop receiving the reminders, you can always unsubscribe at the bottom of each email.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

SENATE BILL 150 – AGRICULTURAL FERTILIZER APPLICATOR CERTIFICATION

Q. Who has to be certified? Do all my employees have to be certified?

A. Anybody who applies commercial fertilizer to 50 or more acres must be certified. The law also allows for an uncertified person to apply fertilizer if they are under the direct supervision of a person who is certified.

Q. How will the certification process work?

A. There are three steps in the certification process. You must: fill out an application form, pay an application fee, and attend a training session. A person that already has a valid commercial or private pesticide applicator license must apply for the certification but will not be required to pay the application fee. The fertilizer training session will also be included in the pesticide license training beginning in early 2015.

Q. Where can I get trained? When do I need to be certified?

A. Training will be offered throughout the state on a both a county and regional basis. Persons intending to apply fertilizer on 50 or more acres are encouraged to become certified as soon as possible, no later than September 30th, 2017.

Q. How often do I have to renew my certification?

A. All certifications will be valid for three years, at which point the applicator will need to be recertified. The recertification procedure will be the same as the initial certification procedure.

Q. If I hire someone else to apply my fertilizer do I still have to be certified?

A. No, however the person hired to apply fertilizer must be certified or under the direct supervision of someone who is certified.

Q. Can I buy fertilizer without a certification?

A. Yes. The certification is only required if you are intending to apply fertilizer.

Q. What happens if I don't get certified?

A. Applying commercial fertilizer after September 30th, 2017 without a certification could result in fines and/or being charged with a misdemeanor offense.

Q. How much will it cost?

A. The initial application fee for fertilizer certification will be the same as the pesticide license fee: $30. A person that already has a valid commercial or private applicator license will not be required to pay the application fee.

Q. Do I have to keep records of my fertilizer usage?

A. Yes, the bill requires certified applicators to maintain records including, but not limited to the date, place and rate of application of fertilizer, the type of fertilizer, and the name of the person applying the fertilizer. Records must be maintained for three years after.

Q. Is my fertilizer usage a public record now?

A. Generally no, the records must be kept by the certification holder so they can be audited, but are not considered public records because they will not be submitted to the state. However, ODA can take possession of records if conducting an investigation for enforcement action. Those records would then be considered public.

Q. Will I be inspected?

A. The department will conduct random record audits.

Q. Does this certification offer me any legal protections?

A. The bill does offer some legal protection against civil suits, certification being one of three components. Additionally, the certified applicator must maintain records and must have an approved nutrient management plan.
